2-Finger Inverted Pleat Sheer Drapery: Tuzee, Stone 5681; 2-Finger Inverted Pleat Drapery: Checkerloom, Crimson Sunset 8620

Intricate Details. Hand-Tailored Artistry.

Distinctive, bold, and meant to be seen, no other window treatment lets you express your personal taste quite as elegantly as drapery. Our extensive Graber Drapery fabric collection is made in the USA and features a wide variety of beautiful designs and options, dramatic finishing touches, and exceptional, expert service—so you can delight in every detail.

Classic Pleats

Ideal for drapes you plan to open and close, pleated draperies maintain structure and shape, for a crisp, clean look. Our classic pleat styles include box, cartridge, inverted, pinch, and reverse. Each style allows the fabric to fold and fall in a different way, adding symmetry and elegance in one fell swoop.

Draperies from Left to Right—Inverted Pleat in Bountiful, Pine Grove 8840; Reverse Pleat in Countryside, Normandy Gray 8102; Box Pleat in Refuge, Sugarcane 8664; Pinch Pleat in Assurance, Sea Foam 8460 (available online only and in limited quantities); Two Finger Inverted Pleat in Circumference, Vapor 1791; Two Finger Pinch Pleat in Ellipse, Sapphire Night 1590

Specialty Styles

While classic pleats add elegance to any room, specialty pleats and rod pocket styles reflect more of a personal style preference and are ideal for stationary panels. Choose from plain or grommet top to wrapped, back, or classic tab. Roll pleat offers the functionality of a pleated style, but with a smooth, clean appearance. Whichever style you choose, you'll enjoy a relaxed, more informal look.

Custom Drapery Options

Besides header style, there are a myriad of ways to create an even more custom, composed look. The length—and how the fabric gathers at the bottom—can change the look of the room from crisp and modern (with short lengths such as sill, apron, or floor) to romantic and flowy (trouser or puddle).

Adding decorative elements to your drapery can add a personalized touch. Options include edge banding, color blocking, trim, wrapped tabs, tiebacks and more.
